Elders & Deacons Workshop: March 2-3, 2012

Good News in the Book of Revelation

Will you be left behind? What does the book of Revelation really say about the end times? Join us as we discover why the book of Revelation really is good news.

Christmount and Lexington Theological Seminary collaborate for the Elders and Deacons Workshop to give lay leaders an opportunity to hear Disciples scholars and learn more about their particular ministry.

Dr. Margaret N. Ralph, Director of M.A. Program for Roman Catholic Students at LTS, will keynote. Elders and Deacons can benefit from this event in many ways:

- Gain a deeper understanding of the work they do.
- Learn specific skills, like how to visit in homes, how to strengthen the ministry of their pastors, how to deepen their personal spiritual lives, and how to talk about faith and the major issues of the modern world.
- Share concerns with and learn from other Elders and Deacons.
- Fellowship with other Disciples.

Groups or individuals may stay over Saturday night for a short retreat following the event, or arrive a day early just to relax and enjoy Christmount.

Dr. Margaret N. Ralph

Director of M.A. Program for Roman Catholic Students
Lexington Theological Seminary

B.A., St. Mary's College, 1963

M.A., University of Massachusetts, 1970

Ph.D., University of Kentucky, 1980

Margaret Ralph, her husband, Don, and their four children moved to Lexington in 1972. Dr. Ralph taught in the English Department/Religious Studies Program at the University of Kentucky. She later became the consultant for Adult Faith Development for the Diocese of Covington, the Director of RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) and Evangelization for the Diocese of Lexington, and, for 16 years, the Secretary of Educational Ministries for the Diocese of Lexington.

Dr. Ralph is the author of eleven books including And God Said What?, an Introduction to Literary Forms in the Bible, the Discovering the Living Word series, and a new series, Breaking Open the Lectionary: Lectionary Readings in Their Biblical Context for RCIA, Faith Sharing Groups, and Lectors. Her work has been translated into Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, and Korean.
